SURGICAL TRADE IN CONVENTION HERE

Comptroller Prendergast Welcomes Visitors to New York; Dinner To-night.

ARMENONVILLE IS OPEN

The American Surgical Trade Association met in convention at the Hotel Astor yesterday. A number of allied cranizations also held meetings there comptroller Prendergast made an address of welcome and other speakers were E. Mahady and W. R. Grady, whose subject was "Hospital Furniture and Sterilizing Apparatus." The speakers te-day will be I. H. Hettinger, J. Frederick Hartz and F. A. Koch. Plans have been completed for dinner to-night, with F. S. Dickinson, president of the Wholesale Surgical Trade Association as the toastmaster. The visitors were entertained with a theatre party last night.

The present officers of the American Surgical Trade Association are: Charles M. Steinmueller, Physician's Supply Company, Philadelphia, president; Thomas B. James, J. F. Hartz Company, Toronto, first vice-president; Charles M. Sampson, Sampson Soch Company, Boston, second vice-president; P. F. Mahady, E. F. Mahady Company, Hunterford, N. J., president; F. A. Koch. F. BANKERS IN DARK ON CHINESE PLANS

New Yorkers Doubt Early Establishment of Institution in Pekin. .

WASHINGTON AGAINST IT

The big banking institutions of Wall Street which at one time composed the American group in the six Power Chinese loan are not associated, it was said yesterday, in any plan for the establishment of a Chinese-American bank in China, as outlined by the visiting commission of Chinese merchants. These nstitutions were J. P. Morgan & Co., the National City Bank, Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and the First National Bank.

It was learned eyesterday that the leading bankers of this country do not consider the time ripe for the building up of any new banking enterprise in China. It was pointed out that the Washington Government has refused its Washington Government has refused its support to any such enterprise, which refusal has been emphasized since the downfall of "dollar diplomacy" by events in Mexico.

Support of this Government of any substantial banking and steamship enterprise in China, it was held, is essential, particularly in view of the present international complications between China and Japan. These troubles, it was said, act as a further deterrent in the

be attracted to large banking investment.

Bankers expressed the most cordial friendship and liking for the Chinese and an unbounded belief in the potential wealth of the country. Because of difficulties, apparently for the present too great to be surmounted, it was held that any big banking enterprise in China by Americans will have to be delayed.

Wall Street believes, it appeared, that the plan outlined by the Chinese commissioners is more in the nature of a proposition that has not yet even grached the practical promotion stage

Reached the practical promotion stage than a plan already agreed upon. Chaichang Woo, senior secretary in the Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce at Pekin, headed a party composed of twelve of the sixteen Chinese trade commissioners which passed all yesterday in doing business and seeing the sights of Philadelphia. The dozen commissioners did not get back until To-day the commissioners will be the guests of Thomas A. Edison at his home and factory in Orange, N. J.

Light Trading in London. LONDON, June 7 .- The markets were steady, but business was extremely light. There was a little investment buying. Home rails were duli.
